

Conflict/Problem Solving

Character Education Quickies

Time: 5-8 minutes

Materials: None

You are sitting near the window and you are cold. Your friend, sitting across the room, is warm and wants the window open. You are arguing about the window during math. Your classmates can't hear because you are being disruptive and your teacher is grumpy because you are interrupting her lesson.

- What is it called when you and another person don't agree? (Conflict)
- How can you resolve the conflict so that EVERYONE wins? (Talk it out, compromise, get to the Win-Win-Win)
- Brainstorm possible solutions that will feel good to everyone; you, your friend AND your community (your teacher and classmates).
- When you have a problem CARE ENOUGH to TALK IT OUT.
